

RenewData Expands Sales Team with Accomplished Technology and Legal Solutions Industry Professional

E-Discovery, Archiving, and Information Governance Solutions Meet Growing Requirements for Law Firms, Corporations, and Government Agencies in Southeast Region

Austin, Texas, May 19, 2009 — RenewData, a leading provider of services for the discovery, archiving, and governance of electronically stored information (ESI), today announced it has added Rich Slaby to its sales team as Regional Sales Director, to serve clients in the Southeast US region. The addition of this highly experienced sales professional enforces the company's plan for growth and its strategy to provide clients with a proactive approach to data governance.

“With his extensive technical and legal sales background, Rich is a valuable and strategic addition to our team,” said Rich Cohen, Executive Vice President of Legal Services at RenewData. “Rich is a seasoned sales professional whose experience will allow him to help meet his clients’ toughest e-discovery, archiving, and data governance requirements. With Rich’s outstanding track record, we’re confident he will make a significant impact in the region and will exceed his clients’ expectations.”

Slaby was previously the Manager of Legal Solutions at Compuware Corporation, focusing on the management of global computer enterprises and applications that serve the business. He covered the Mid-Atlantic States as well as the Southeast. At Compuware, Slaby was one of only twelve managers that received the Presidents Club award for his exemplary revenue growth and account management accomplishments. Slaby also previously worked in the telecommunications industry at AT&T and Kamine Multimedia Corporation, and he worked with Aspen Publishing Corporation distributing legal research software to law firms. He also served as the Director of Development for the National Science Center where he helped raise money for all national and local programs sponsored by the organization. Slaby has served on the board and committees of numerous local civic organizations including Leadership Georgia,
